

aLoveLinksPlus.com Announces New Recommended Online Dating Services And New Advice Partners

aLoveLinksPlus™ has been reviewing online dating services since 1999 and is celebrating 10 years online. We are announcing reviews of new dating service web site recommendations for singles and new partnerships that enhance our service to our web site visitors.

Vancouver, Canada (PRWEB) May 2009 - aLoveLinksPlus.com, a leader in the online dating industry, is proud to announce recommendations of dating services that have been recently reviewed.

"We have completed reviews and found the following online dating services to meet or exceed our requirements for recommendation" says Robert Lee, editor and owner of aLoveLinksPlus.com.

Flirt140.com
Zoosk.com

Robert Lee continues, "Finding quality dating services that also meet our requirements for recommendation becomes harder and harder despite the continual increase in new dating services being created and uploaded every day. The real challenge is finding the "stars" that will really have the ability to connect the right two people that are looking for love. If a dating service can't do that, they don't get the aLoveLinksPlus.com recommendation."

Dating Advice Review

aLoveLinksPlus.com has also begun reviewing the new "Mind of a Man": Christian Carter DVD program for women and posting the reviews, chapter by chapter on the website.

"So far" says Robert Lee, editor, "This is a very well laid out, in-depth study and yet a still easily understandable program that women will find eye opening as they study the underlying needs and desires of a relationship based on a man's viewpoint. Relationship issues know no bounds but Christian Carter lays out what to expect, and how to deal with the men that you are involved with.

And even if you are a single woman now, the 'Mind of a Man' DVD program will be the rule book that will help you to find the right guy next, while turning away the losers, posers and players."
