Undercover Reviewer Information Sheet

As you complete your undercover review, please look for answers to these particular questions. Keep in mind, your impressions of the quality of service, your use of searches, messaging systems and use of the customer service/help/support features are of paramount importance.

1. Describe the main features that attracted you to this service. How useful the features are, if there is any software that needs to be installed to use any of the features, how easy the install is accomplished.
2. Be sure to note the browser you use to access the service (Internet Explorer, Netscape, AOL, Firefox or other) and the type of internet connection you have.
3. Did the initial profile/questionnaire that you completed seem to ask pertinent questions?
4. Were there areas of the profile you felt were unnecessary or could be improved?
5. Did other members profiles seem to be of real people?
6. Did other members try to sell you something (profile spammers)?
7. Why did you use the customer service/help/support feature? How timely and helpful were the answers you received? Was your issue resolved?

You should present your review in a conversational style, with highlights of important issues/features and meetings, if any, that occurred through using the service.

Please feel free to add any other comments about the service you feel fits the undercover reviewer's investigation.

Please note, the review is not complete until it is submitted and accepted by aLoveLinksPlus.com. This may require additional questions to be answered after you have submitted your review, so please keep detailed notes of your use of the service.

Additional terms include:

The undercover review becomes the sole property of aLoveLinksPlus.com. You may not use it for your own personal/professional purposes without prior written consent.

Payment for the undercover review is one month's membership fee at the target online dating service. No other payments will be made. You are responsible for canceling your membership to avoid any additional fees.

Thanks!
